Washington, DC -- U.S. Representative Michael A. Arcuri (D-Utica) today praised Lockheed Martin Systems Integration - Owego for being selected as one of three companies to continue competing for what is expected to be an over $1 billion federal contract through the U.S. Army and Marine Corps.

“Congratulations to the men and women at Lockheed Martin Owego whose skill and dedication are recognized not only nationally, but internationally,” Arcuri said. “The defense systems manufactured in the Southern Tier not only keep our nation safe, they provide jobs and are a vital part of our local economy. In Congress, I will continue to work to ensure that Lockheed Martin Owego secures key federal contracts and the national recognition it deserves.”

Today, Lockheed Martin Systems Integration - Owego secured roughly $35 million for the technology development phase of the U.S. Army and U.S. Marine Corps Joint Light Tactical Vehicle (JLTV).

###