The American Cancer Society, in partnership with the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACS CAN) and Auburn Memorial Hospital, will host a community meeting to highlight the challenges that cancer patients face in our current health care system and discuss the need for health care reform.

The program will feature Congressman Michael Arcuri discussing the proposal to reform health care, as well as a local resident's journey through our health care system. There will be opportunity for open dialogue with the Congressman and other speakers. This will be the 23rd town hall meeting Congressman Arcuri has participated in this year.

Date: Wednesday, September 2, 2009

Time: 12:00pm - 1:30pm
