

Washington, DC -- U.S. Representative Michael Arcuri (D-Utica) has expanded his office staff in Upstate New York and Washington to better serve his constituents in New York's 24th District.

Arcuri's staff in Washington, D.C. now includes:

- Dave Mayorga is a native of Coral Springs, Florida and will serve as Arcuri's Senior Legislative Assistant. Mayorga graduated from the University of Florida where he studied Anthropology. He also worked at the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism while in school. Mayorga was previously the Special Assistant to the Chief of Staff and then a Legislative Clerk with the House Science Committee.

Arcuri's district staff now includes a Field Representative for Cortland:

- J. Robert Messinger is a native of Oneida, NY and will serve as Arcuri's Field Representative in Cortland. He has lived in Cortland for twenty years. Messinger received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in US History from the University of Notre Dame in Indiana. Messinger previously worked for the New York Rural Water Association as a solid waste specialist and established the Cortland County Recycling program as the County's Recycling Coordinator. Messinger has two children and two grandchildren.

###